

ChapterChat Storyboard

ChapterChat improves critical thinking about novels being read in high school classes.

Nick is confused by what the green light in The Great Gatsby might signify, so he asks ChapterChat.

Nick, a high school student, has to rely on static study guides that don't develop the critical thinking he needs for exams.

Nick is able to talk through his thinking and develop his understanding of the novel, boosting his confidence and preparedness.

Nick searches for generative AI related to classic books and stumbles upon ChapterChat.

Nick tells his friends about the bot and how it helped him better understand the class reading.